

Please do not allow further consolidation of media ownership.
This would lead to more control of content based on what powerful owners determine will "sell" or what political or societal message they want to emphasize. The public loses either way, and, after all, the public has rights here that have been violated....Don't make matters worse. Please. Thank you.